

EducationUSA Canada Spotlights

East Carolina University

In Greenville, North Carolina

From modest beginnings as a teacher training school, East Carolina University (ECU) has grown to become an emerging, national research university with an enrollment of more than 27,000 students. The campus is located in Greenville, North Carolina, less than a two-hour drive to both the state capital, Raleigh, to the west and Atlantic Coast beaches to the east.

East Carolina offers 105 bachelor's degree programs, 85 master's degree programs, and 18 doctoral degree programs. The most popular degrees are Engineering, Education, Art, Nursing, Business, and Computer Science.

East Carolina University is a vibrant community with a wide array of programs and services including the performing arts series, leadership development programs, community service opportunities, student organization involvement, and campus recreation.

At East Carolina University you will find:

- A public, coeducational residential university chartered in 1907.
- A diverse student population with international students from more than 60 countries.
- Approximately 400 student organizations, including the International Student Association.
- Top-quality housing in one of 15 residence halls, dining at two all-you-can-eat dining halls, and eight campus restaurants including Subway and Starbucks.

To learn more about how to attend East Carolina University as an international undergraduate student please e-mail international@ecu.edu with specific questions or visit the East Carolina University Office of International Affairs webpage.

At East Carolina University, tomorrow starts here.