

EducationUSA Canada Spotlights

Viterbo University

In La Crosse, Wisconsin

Viterbo University is located in scenic La Crosse, Wisconsin, situated between majestic bluffs and the Mississippi river. Viterbo is a Catholic, Franciscan University that values hospitality, contemplation, integrity, stewardship, and service and recently celebrated its 125th anniversary. At Viterbo, students are prepared for life-long learning, not only intellectually, but also culturally and spiritually. This small university has a 12:1 student-to-teacher ratio where most teachers know all of their students by name. With a state of the art nursing building, nursing students can expect to be challenged to provide the quality care the La Crosse community knows and respects Viterbo for.

During St. Francis of Assisi's feast day (Viterbo's patron saint), Father Conrad welcomes the Viterbo community to bring pets of all sizes to be blessed, even hedgehogs!

Viterbo offers 70 different programs of study, filled with internships, research, and study abroad opportunities. Viterbo also has nine online programs for individuals who seek a more flexible university experience. Interested in psychology? Viterbo is one of the only undergraduate universities that includes counseling recording sessions as a part of their psychology curriculum.

Not only can students expect a great education from Viterbo, but there are also great athletic teams, including volleyball, basketball, and soccer. Viterbo's women's volleyball team finished in the top four in nationals in 2014! Learn more about Viterbo athletics and the NAIA conference.

Viterbo has international students from all over the world, assisted by a helpful, welcoming international student services staff. Apply today and count on the international admissions staff to help you through the process.

