In Decatur, Illinois

Millikin University is a private, four-year university that carries an enrollment of 2,100 students in traditional and non-traditional undergraduate and graduate degree programs. The campus, located in Decatur, Illinois, is within three hours of major U.S. cities: Chicago, Illinois; St. Louis, Missouri; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

An education at Millikin focuses on Performance Learning. Students earn opportunities to demonstrate their knowledge by working with real clients, presenting research at national conferences, participating in global internships and immersion classes, and/or taking part in on-stage performances. Graduate career outcomes speak for themselves: within six months of graduation, nearly 99% of Millikin students gain employment or enter graduate/professional school.

Because of its size, Millikin's campus is easily navigated. But don't be fooled into thinking that a more compact campus means fewer academic offerings. Millikin has a college/school of Arts and Sciences, Business, Fine Arts, and Professional Studies. With more than 50 majors, minors and special programs to choose from, students delve into a wide range subjects and enjoy the freedom of individual and personal relationships with their professors.

Millikin's Big Blue Athletics teams compete in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin and have Cross Country (Men's and Women's), Football, Golf (Men's and Women's), Soccer (Men's and Women's), Tennis (Men's and Women's), Volleyball, Basketball (Men's and Women's), Swimming (Men's and Women's), Track and Field (Men's and Women's), Baseball, Softball, and Wrestling.
