

EducationUSA Canada spotlights

City University of Seattle

in Seattle, Washington

City University of Seattle is an accredited university in Seattle, Washington, founded in 1973. Seattle is ranked one of the most livable and cleanest US cities by Forbes Magazine and is home to many international corporations and ethnic communities. CityU's accessible downtown Seattle location gives students ample opportunities to find internships and network with companies. Seattle is home to many global corporations, including Microsoft, Amazon, Starbucks and Boeing.

Seattle is annually rated a best place to live due to its natural beauty, vibrant art and music scene, and career opportunities. CityU's programs are popular with students worldwide for their practical curriculum and experienced teaching staff, who have worked for some of the world's largest and most successful companies. City University of Seattle is one of the top three MBA producing schools in Washington State.

CityU has a robust international community, as 650 of the 6,300 students are international students. No GRE, GMAT, or SAT scores are required for admission. International student scholarships are available: $2,000 - $5,000 based on GPA.

Graduate Programs

- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Science in Computer Science
- Master of Science in Project Management
- Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology

Undergraduate Programs*

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
- Bachelor of Arts in Management

*Students need to have at least one year of college classes to transfer to our undergraduate programs.

CityU has a beautiful new residence hall located ten minutes walking from campus in the heart of downtown Seattle.

Apply Today!